CLASS ACTION

STIPULATED PROTECTIVE ORDER

Complaint Filed: August 29, 2007
 Trial Date: Not set yet.

1 1. PURPOSES AND LIMITATIONS

2 Disclosure and discovery activity in this action are likely to involve production of confidential,
3 proprietary, or private information for which special protection from public disclosure and from use for 4 any purpose other than prosecuting this litigation would be warranted. Accordingly, the parties hereby 5 stipulate to and petition the Court to enter the following Stipulated Protective Order. The parties
6 acknowledge that this Order does not confer blanket protections on all disclosures or responses to 7 discovery and that the protection it affords extends only to the limited information or items that are 8 entitled under the applicable legal principles to treatment as confidential. The parties further
9 acknowledge, as set forth in Section 10, below, that this Stipulated Protective Order creates no
10 entitlement to file confidential information under seal; Civil Local Rule 79-5 sets forth the procedures 11 that must be followed and reflects the standards that will be applied when a party seeks permission from 12 the court to file material under seal.

13 2. DEFINITIONS

14 2.1 Party: any party to this action, including all of its officers, directors, employees, 15 consultants, retained experts, and outside counsel (and their support staff).

16 2.2 Disclosure or Discovery Material: all items or information, regardless of the medium or 17 manner generated, stored, or maintained (including, among other things, testimony, transcripts, or 18 tangible things) that are produced or generated in disclosures or responses to discovery in this matter.

19 2.3 "Confidential" information or items: For the purposes of this Order, "Confidential"
20 information or items means:

21 (a) Information that constitutes a trade secret in accordance with Cal. Civil Code § 22 3426.1;

23 (b) Non-public communications with regulators or other governmental bodies that are 24 intended to be kept confidential and/or are protected from disclosure by statute or regulation;

25 (c) Information, materials, and/or other documents reflecting non-public business or 26 financial strategies, and/or confidential competitive information which, if disclosed, would result in 27 prejudice or harm to the disclosing party; and 28 ///

1 (d) Any other information that qualifies for protection under standards developed under 2 F.R.Civ.P. 26(c), including but not limited to, information (other than Private Consumer Information as 3 defined below) subject to federal or state privacy rights.

4 2.4 Private Consumer Information: Borrower-specific and/or credit applicant-specific 5 information, including private consumer information that contains identifying, contact or private 6 financial information provided by a consumer to a financial institution, resulting from any transaction 7 with the consumer or any service performed for the consumer, or otherwise obtained by the financial 8 institution, including any list, description, or other grouping of consumers (and publicly available 9 information pertaining to them) that is derived using any nonpublic personal information, including any 10 "nonpublic personal information" such as identified by the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act, 15 U.S.C. § 6801 11 et seq.

12 2.5 Receiving Party: a Party that receives Disclosure or Discovery Material from a 13 Producing Party.

14 2.6 Producing Party: a Party or non-party that produces Disclosure or Discovery Material in 15 this action.

16 2.7 Designating Party: a Party or non-party that designates information or items that it
17 produces in disclosures or in responses to discovery as "Confidential" or "Private Consumer 18 Information."

19 2.8 Protected Material: any Disclosure or Discovery Material that is designated as 20 "Confidential" or as "Private Consumer Information."

21 2.9 Outside Counsel: attorneys who are not employees of a Party but who are retained to 22 represent or advise a Party in this action.

23 2.10 House Counsel: attorneys who are employees of a Party.

24 2.11 Counsel (without qualifier): Outside Counsel and House Counsel (as well as their 25 support staffs).

26 2.12 Expert: a person with specialized knowledge or experience in a matter pertinent to the 27 litigation who has been retained by a Party or its counsel to serve as an expert witness or as a consultant
28 in this action and who is not a past or a current employee of a Party or a current employee of a competitor of a Party and who, at the time of retention, is not anticipated to become an employee of a Party or a competitor of a Party. This definition includes a professional jury or trial consultant retained in connection with this litigation.

2.13 Professional Vendors: persons or entities that provide litigation support services (e.g., photocopying; videotaping; translating; preparing exhibits or demonstrations; organizing, storing, retrieving data in any form or medium; etc.) to a Party and their employees and subcontractors.

3. SCOPE

The protections conferred by this Stipulation and Order cover not only Protected Material (as defined above), but also any information copied or extracted therefrom, as well as all copies, excerpts, summaries, or compilations thereof, plus testimony, conversations, or presentations by parties or counsel to or in court or in other settings that might reveal Protected Material.

4. DURATION

Even after the termination of this litigation, the confidentiality obligations imposed by this Order shall remain in effect until the Designating Party that produced the Protected Material at issue agrees otherwise in writing or a court order otherwise directs.

5. DESIGNATING PROTECTED MATERIAL

5.1 Exercise of Restraint and Care in Designating Material for Protection. Each Party or non-party that designates information or items for protection under this Order must take care to limit any such designation to specific material that qualifies under the appropriate standards. A Designating Party must take reasonable care to designate for protection only those parts of material, documents, items, or oral or written communications that the Party reasonably believes to qualify for protection – so that other portions of the material, documents, items, or communications for which protection is not warranted are not swept unjustifiably within the ambit of this Order. Mass, indiscriminate, or routinized designations are prohibited. Designations that are shown to be clearly unjustified, or that have been made for an improper purpose (e.g., to unnecessarily encumber or retard the case development process, or to impose unnecessary expenses and burdens on other parties), expose the Designating Party to sanctions. If it comes to a Party's or a non-party's attention that information or items that it designated for protection do not qualify for protection at all, or do not qualify for the level of protection initially

1 asserted, that Party or non-party must promptly notify all other parties that it is withdrawing the 2 mistaken designation.

3 5.2 Manner and Timing of Designations. Except as otherwise provided in this Order (see, 4 e.g., second paragraph of section 5.2(a), below), or as otherwise stipulated or ordered, material that 5 qualifies for protection under this Order must be clearly so designated before the material is disclosed or 6 produced. Nothing in this Order concerning designation for protection, however, shall be interpreted as 7 controlling the form of production of any material by any Party or non-Party.

8 Designation in conformity with this Order requires:

9 (a) for information in documentary form (apart from transcripts of depositions or other 10 pretrial or trial proceedings), that the Producing Party affix the legend "CONFIDENTIAL" or
11 "PRIVATE CONSUMER INFORMATION" at the top or bottom of each page that contains protected
12 material. If only a portion or portions of the material on a page qualifies for protection, the Producing 13 Party also must clearly identify the protected portion(s) (e.g., by making appropriate markings in the
14 margins) and must specify, for each portion, the level of protection being asserted (either
15 "CONFIDENTIAL" or "PRIVATE CONSUMER INFORMATION").

16 A Party or non-party that makes original documents or materials available for inspection
17 need not designate them for protection until after the inspecting Party has indicated which material it
18 would like copied and produced. During the inspection and before the designation, all of the material 19 made available for inspection shall be deemed Protected Material. After the inspecting Party has 20 identified the documents it wants copied and produced, the Producing Party must determine which 21 documents, or portions thereof, qualify for protection under this Order, then, before producing the 22 specified documents, the Producing Party must affix the appropriate legend ("CONFIDENTIAL" or 23 "PRIVATE CONSUMER INFORMATION") at the top or bottom of each page that contains Protected
24 Material. If only a portion or portions of the material on a page qualifies for protection, the Producing
25 Party also must clearly identify the protected portion(s) (e.g., by making appropriate markings in the
26 margins) and must specify, for each portion, the level of protection being asserted (either
27 "CONFIDENTIAL" or "PRIVATE CONSUMER INFORMATION").

28 ///

1 (b) for testimony given in deposition or in other pretrial or trial proceedings, that the 2 Party or non-party offering or sponsoring the testimony take reasonable steps to identify on the record,
3 before the close of the deposition, hearing, or other proceeding, the specific identity or the scope of all
4 Protected Materials in such testimony, and further specify any portions of the testimony that qualify as 5 "CONFIDENTIAL" or "PRIVATE CONSUMER INFORMATION." When it is impractical to identify 6 separately each portion of testimony that is entitled to protection, and when it appears that substantial
7 portions of the testimony may qualify for protection, the Party or non-party that sponsors, offers, or 8 gives the testimony may invoke on the record (before the deposition or proceeding is concluded) a right
9 to have up to 20 days to identify the specific portions of the testimony as to which protection is sought
10 and to specify the level of protection being asserted ("CONFIDENTIAL" or "PRIVATE CONSUMER 11 INFORMATION"). Only those portions of the testimony that are appropriately designated for 12 protection within the 20 days shall be covered by the provisions of this Stipulated Protective Order.
13 Transcript pages containing Protected Material must be separately bound by the court reporter, who 14 must affix to the top or bottom of each such page the legend "CONFIDENTIAL" or "PRIVATE 15 CONSUMER INFORMATION," as instructed by the Party or nonparty offering or sponsoring the 16 witness or presenting the testimony.

17 (c) for information produced in some form other than documentary, and for any other 18 tangible items, that the Producing Party affix in a prominent place on the exterior of the container or 19 containers in which the information or item is stored the legend "CONFIDENTIAL" or "PRIVATE 20 CONSUMER INFORMATION." If only portions of the information or item warrant protection, the 21 Producing Party, to the extent practicable, shall identify the protected portions, specifying whether they 22 qualify as "Confidential" or as "Private Consumer Information."

23 5.3 Inadvertent Failures to Designate. If any Confidential information or items or Private 24 Consumer Information is inadvertently provided to a discovering party without being marked
25 appropriately as Protected Material in accordance with this Order, the producing party may thereafter
26 designate such material(s) as Confidential or Private Consumer Information and the initial failure to so 27 mark the material shall not be deemed a waiver of its confidentiality.

28 ///

1 If a party inadvertently produces information that it later discovers, or in good faith later asserts,
2 to be subject to any legal privileges, including but not limited to, the attorney-client privilege or work
3 product doctrine, or is otherwise protected from disclosure, the production of that information will not 4 be presumed to constitute a waiver of any applicable privileges or other protections. In these 5 circumstances, the producing party must immediately notify all parties in writing of the inadvertent 6 production and the basis for the claim of privilege or other protection from production, and request in 7 writing the return or confirmed destruction of the privileged or protected information. Within five days 8 of receiving such notification, and in compliance with the receiving parties' ethical obligations under the 9 law, all receiving parties who have not already reviewed such materials or who have reviewed the 10 materials but do not contest the applicability of the privilege asserted must return or confirm destruction
11 of all such materials, including copies and/or summaries thereof. However, should a receiving party
12 contest the applicability of a privilege asserted with respect to an inadvertently produced document 13 which the receiving party has already reviewed, the receiving party may temporarily retain the 14 document or documents at issue, segregated and not further copied or disseminated, for the sole purpose
15 of contesting the applicability of the privilege asserted. Within two (2) business days of the issuance of 16 a court order deeming the contested documents at issue privileged, or protected from production, the 17 receiving party must return or confirm destruction of all such materials, including copies and/or 18 summaries thereof.

19 6. CHALLENGING CONFIDENTIALITY DESIGNATIONS

20 6.1 Timing of Challenges. Unless a prompt challenge to a Designating Party's designation of 21 Protected Material is necessary to avoid foreseeable substantial unfairness, unnecessary economic 22 burdens, or a later significant disruption or delay of the litigation, a Party does not waive its right to 23 challenge a designation of Protected Material by electing not to mount a challenge promptly after the 24 original designation is disclosed.

25 6.2 Meet and Confer. A Party that elects to initiate a challenge to a Designating Party's 26 designation of Protected Material must do so in good faith and must begin the process by conferring 27 directly (in voice to voice dialogue; other forms of communication are not sufficient) with counsel for 28 the Designating Party. In conferring, the challenging Party must explain the basis for its belief that the

1 designation of Protected Material was not proper and must give the Designating Party an opportunity to
2 review the Protected Material at issue, to reconsider the circumstances, and, if no change in designation
3 is offered, to explain the basis for the chosen designation. A challenging Party may proceed to the next 4 stage of the challenge process only if it has engaged in this meet and confer process first.

5 6.3 Judicial Intervention. A Party that elects to press a challenge to a designation of 6 Protected Material after considering the justification offered by the Designating Party may file and serve
7 a motion under Civil Local Rule 7 (and in compliance with Civil Local Rule 79-5, if applicable) that 8 identifies the challenged material and sets forth in detail the basis for the challenge. Each such motion 9 must be accompanied by a competent declaration that affirms that the movant has complied with the 10 meet and confer requirements imposed in the preceding paragraph and that sets forth with specificity the 11 justification for the designation that was given by the Designating Party in the meet and confer dialogue.

12 The burden of persuasion in any such challenge proceeding shall be on the Designating Party.
13 Until the court rules on the challenge, all parties shall continue to afford the material in question the 14 level of protection to which it is entitled under the Producing Party's designation.

15 7. ACCESS TO AND USE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

16 7.1 Basic Principles. A Receiving Party may use Protected Material that is disclosed or 17 produced by another Party or by a non-party in connection with this case only for prosecuting, 18 defending, or attempting to settle this litigation. Such Protected Material may be disclosed only to the 19 categories of persons and under the conditions described in this Order. When the litigation has been 20 terminated, a Receiving Party must comply with the provisions of section 11, below (FINAL 21 DISPOSITION). Protected Material must be stored and maintained by a Receiving Party at a location
22 and in a secure manner that ensures that access is limited to the persons authorized under this Order.

23 7.2 Disclosure of "CONFIDENTIAL" Information or Items. Unless otherwise ordered by 24 the court or permitted in writing by the Designating Party, a Receiving Party may disclose any 25 information or item designated CONFIDENTIAL only to:

26 (a) the Receiving Party's Outside Counsel of record in this action, as well as employees
27 of said Counsel to whom it is reasonably necessary to disclose the information for this litigation and 28 who have signed the "Agreement to Be Bound by Protective Order" that is attached hereto as Exhibit A;

(b) the officers, directors, and employees (including House Counsel) of the Receiving Party to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation and who have signed the "Agreement to Be Bound by Protective Order" (Exhibit A);

(c) experts (as defined in this Order) of the Receiving Party to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation and who have signed the "Agreement to Be Bound by Protective Order" (Exhibit A);

(d) the Court and its personnel;

(e) court reporters, their staffs, and professional vendors to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation and who have signed the "Agreement to Be Bound by Protective Order" (Exhibit A);

(f) during their depositions, witnesses in the action to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary and who have signed the "Agreement to Be Bound by Protective Order" (Exhibit A). Pages of transcribed deposition testimony or exhibits to depositions that reveal Protected Material must be separately bound by the court reporter and may not be disclosed to anyone except as permitted under this Stipulated Protective Order.

(g) the author of the document or the original source of the information.

7.3 Use of "Private Consumer Information" All documents or materials designated as Private Consumer Information on the ground that said documents or materials pertain to borrower-specific and/or credit applicant-specific information, including private consumer information that contains identifying, contact or private financial information provided by a consumer to a financial institution, resulting from any transaction with the consumer or any service performed for the consumer, or otherwise obtained by the financial institution, including any list, description, or other grouping of consumers (and publicly available information pertaining to them) that is derived using any nonpublic personal information, including any "nonpublic personal information" such as identified by the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act, 15 U.S.C. § 6801 et seq., may only be used for the purposes of this litigation, and shall not be disclosed or disseminated to the general public or used for any commercial, business or competitive purpose, without the consumers informed written consent.

1 8. PROTECTED MATERIAL SUBPOENAED OR ORDERED PRODUCED IN 2 OTHER LITIGATION.

3 If a Receiving Party is served with a subpoena or an order issued in other litigation that would 4 compel disclosure of any information or items designated in this action as "CONFIDENTIAL" or 5 "PRIVATE CONSUMER INFORMATION," the Receiving Party must so notify the Designating Party,
6 in writing (by fax, if possible) immediately and in no event more than three court days after receiving 7 the subpoena or order. Such notification must include a copy of the subpoena or court order.

8 The Receiving Party also must immediately inform in writing the Party who caused the subpoena 9 or order to issue in the other litigation that some or all the material covered by the subpoena or order is 10 the subject of this Protective Order. In addition, the Receiving Party must deliver a copy of this 11 Stipulated Protective Order promptly to the Party in the other action that caused the subpoena or order to 12 issue.

13 The purpose of imposing these duties is to alert the interested parties to the existence of this 14 Protective Order and to afford the Designating Party in this case a reasonable opportunity to try to 15 protect its competitive or confidentiality interests, or its rights or obligations, in the court from which 16 the subpoena or order issued. The Designating Party shall bear the burdens and the expenses of seeking 17 protection in that court of its confidential material – and nothing in these provisions should be construed
18 as authorizing or encouraging a Receiving Party in this action to disobey a lawful directive from another 19 court.

20 9. UNAUTHORIZED DISCLOSURE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

21 If a Receiving Party learns that, by inadvertence or otherwise, it has disclosed Protected Material 22 to any person or in any circumstance not authorized under this Stipulated Protective Order, the 23 Receiving Party must immediately (a) notify in writing the Designating Party of the unauthorized
24 disclosures, (b) use its best efforts to retrieve all copies of the Protected Material, (c) inform the person
25 or persons to whom unauthorized disclosures were made of all the terms of this Order, and (d) request
26 such person or persons to execute the "Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound" that is attached
27 hereto as Exhibit A.

28 ///

1 10. FILING PROTECTED MATERIAL.

2 Without written permission from the Designating Party or a court order secured after appropriate
3 notice to all interested persons, a Party may not file in the public record in this action any Protected
4 Material. A Party that seeks to file under seal any Protected Material must comply with Civil Local 5 Rule 79-5.

6 11. FINAL DISPOSITION.

7 Unless otherwise ordered or agreed in writing by the Producing Party, within sixty days after the 8 final termination of this action, each Receiving Party must return all Protected Material to the Producing 9 Party. As used in this subdivision, "all Protected Material" includes all copies, abstracts, compilations,
10 summaries or any other form of reproducing or capturing any of the Protected Material. With permission
11 in writing from the Designating Party, the Receiving Party may destroy some or all of the Protected
12 Material instead of returning it. Whether the Protected Material is returned or destroyed, the Receiving 13 Party must submit a written certification to the Producing Party (and, if not the same person or entity, to 14 the Designating Party) by the sixty day deadline that identifies (by category, where appropriate) all the 15 Protected Material that was returned or destroyed and that affirms that the Receiving Party has not 16 retained any copies, abstracts, compilations, summaries or other forms of reproducing or capturing any 17 of the Protected Material. Notwithstanding this provision, Counsel are entitled to retain an archival 18 copy of all pleadings, motion papers, transcripts, legal memoranda, correspondence or attorney work
19 product, even if such materials contain Protected Material. Any such archival copies that contain or 20 constitute Protected Material remain subject to this Protective Order as set forth in Section 4

22 12. MISCELLANEOUS

23 12.1 Right to Further Relief. Nothing in this Order abridges the right of any person to seek its 24 modification by the Court in the future.

25 ///

26 ///

27 ///

28

12.2 Right to Assert Other Objections. By stipulating to the entry of this Protective Order no Party waives any right it otherwise would have to object to disclosing or producing any information or item on any ground not addressed in this Stipulated Protective Order. Similarly, no Party waives any right to object on any ground to use in evidence of any of the material covered by this Protective Order. IT IS SO STIPULATED, THROUGH COUNSEL OF RECORD.
